

Louis Ralofsky, MD CPE Principal

Louis Ralofsky, MD is a Principal at exāgoMD. He brings over 18 years of healthcare experience as a clinical and organizational leader and serial entrepreneur to the firm, ideally positioning him to lead strategic, operational, and leadership engagements and to support alliances between healthcare organizations, their physicians, and their executive leaders.

Representative Accomplishments

Dr. Ralofsky is an experienced physician executive with demonstrated success in healthcare leadership, strategy, finance, quality and operations.

After practicing primary care independently, Lou served as President & CEO of NOMS Healthcare, a large independent multi-specialty physician group with over 220 providers representing 31 specialties in 42 northern Ohio cities. During his tenure he founded, developed, and served as the first President and CEO of NOMS ACO, one of only thirty-five physician led CMS/Accountable Care Organizations in the United States.

Following his tenure at NOMS Dr. Ralofsky became President & CEO of Premier Physician Network. Premier Health's Physician Network is the largest multi-specialty physician network in southwest Ohio consisting of 14,000 employees and 2,300 physicians at over 130 locations.

Lou extends the team at exāgoMD with his deep understanding of the nuances of the healthcare delivery system - from physician practice ownership and operational turnaround to building national physician networks and creating academic-community integration affiliations.

Dr. Ralofsky is uniquely skilled at effectively engaging physicians in leading initiatives in: primary and specialty care clinical practice transformation, group integration, service line alignment, growth and acquisitions, design and operation of accountable physician led structures and cultures, developing successful leadership teams, improving patient access and virtual care, clinical growth and in-system utilization management, value-based care contracting, population health, and in bridging community-academic relationships.

Education and Training

Dr. Ralofsky holds a BS from the University of Dayton and received his MD from Wright State University's Boonshoft School of Medicine. He is Board-Certified in Family Medicine and recently gained Certification as a Physician Executive with the American Association for Physician Leadership. Lou recently served his second term on the Ohio State Medical Association's Governing Council.
